Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I have finished digesting your good book, Whitewash IV. It is a revelation unto itself.

My commendation for the perseverance and perspicacity you have shown. Since you hardly need this scribes laudation after the renown you have acquired through previous publications I nonetheless salute you for a job well done.

Enjoyed Jim Lesar's legal analysis since I found brilliance in his logistic sense. Having done many briefs for the Justice Dept. in Maryland (that is proofread them) I too discovered "entrapment" by paid informers on certain individuals in my tenure at King Bros.

It is with a feeling of mutual respect that I address you. It is pitiful that the courts of law are no longer based on justice. Thru empirical studies I found that Anne Arundel County was the worst subdivision in our state for fixing cases for political reasons. Having also served in the State Legislature 1951-1954 I have come to view all laws with a jaundiced eye. The lawyers have made an unholy shambles of the law by plea bargaining and over charging clients.

Page Two:

I can appreciate the great costs incurred in your quest for the truth. In our society truth has become an ignis fatuus, for mankind seemingly has lost its way in perfidy. Half lies are made to appear whole truths.

My father used an old saw, "Nothing crosses the devils back that doesn't come under his belly."

Again my best wishes and trust that you will not let them "twist and turn in the wind", but rather you will shoot those rascals down.

Yours cordially,

Augie

P.S.

Will endeavor to sell a few books for you via personal friends.
